

Articles of Incorporation

—OF—

Gold Reed Mining Company.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:—That we, the undersigned, J. B. Rice, H. H. Shuck and L. L. Moore, all residents of the County of Cochise, Territory of Arizona, have associated, and do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the Territory of Arizona, and in accordance therewith do hereby adopt and execute the following as the Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.
The names of the incorporators are J. B. Rice, H. H. Shuck and L. L. Moore; the name of this corporation shall be GOLD REED MINING COMPANY, and its principal office and place of transacting business shall be at the town of Kingman, in the County of Mohave, in the Territory of Arizona, with branch offices and places of business at any other place or places in the United States of America or elsewhere, as may be designated and established by the Board of Directors of the Company as hereinafter provided for.

ARTICLE II.
The objects and purposes of said corporation, and the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, promoted and carried on by it are as follows:

1. To carry on as principal, agent, commission merchant, consignee, or in any other capacity whatsoever, the business of mining, concentrating, converting, smelting, refining, treating, preparing for market, manufacturing, buying, selling, exchanging and otherwise producing and dealing in copper, gold, silver, lead, zinc, iron, coal, oil and other minerals, and all kinds of ores, metals and minerals, and the products and by-products thereof of any description, by whatsoever process the same are or may hereafter be produced, and generally, and without limit as to the amount, to buy, sell, exchange, lease, acquire and deal in lands, mines, ores, metals, minerals, rights and claims, and in the above specified products, and to conduct any and all business appurtenant thereto.

2. To purchase, lease, locate or otherwise acquire, own, occupy, hold and operate, develop, sell, convey, and deal in copper, gold, silver, coal, iron and other mining claims, mineral lands, water rights and oil lands, and wood and lumber, agricultural, ranch and pasture lands, located in the Territory of Arizona, or elsewhere, for the purposes of the corporation.

3. To mine or otherwise extract or remove gold, silver, copper, coal, iron, zinc and other minerals from any lands owned, acquired, leased or occupied by the corporation, or from any other lands.

4. To buy or otherwise acquire, own, hold, operate, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of electric power plants, steam mills, smelters and all kinds of reduction works.

5. To purchase or otherwise acquire, own, hold, operate, exchange, mortgage, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of buildings, machinery, appliances and any, and all other appliances, and all other property, real, personal or otherwise, for use in carrying out the purposes and objects of this corporation.

6. To buy, construct, maintain, own, operate, lease, mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of roads, turnpikes, tramways, canals, water systems, reservoirs, routes, telephone and telegraph lines, flumes, and pipelines necessary to any of the operations of this corporation. Provided, however, that in the case of roads, tramways, turnpikes or canals, this corporation shall only have power to construct and operate the same from its principal works or plant, or from some navigable stream, or to some existing railroad, turnpike or public highway.

7. To buy, sell, exchange and deal in goods and merchandise of all kinds, on commission or otherwise and do a general mercantile trading, lumbering, mining, manufacturing, mechanical, transportation, shipping and forwarding business, or any one or more of all of the same, and to construct and operate supply houses, stores, restaurants, hotels and boarding houses, at any place or places which may be fixed and designated by the Board of Directors.

8. To purchase, acquire, own, sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of the stock of this corporation, as well as the stock of other corporations, and to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote by proxy, in the same extent as a natural person might do, and to perform all things necessary to properly carry out the objects aforesaid, within or without the Territory of Arizona, in the United States or America.

9. In furtherance of, and without, in any particular, limiting any of the objects, purposes and powers of the corporation, it is hereby expressly declared and provided that the corporation shall have power to issue bonds and other obligations in payment of any or all property purchased or acquired by it, or for any other object or purpose in or about its business, and to mortgage or pledge any stocks, bonds or other obligations, or all or any property, which may be acquired by it, to secure any bonds or other obligations by it issued or incurred, and to guarantee any dividends or bonds or contracts or other obligations, or make and perform contracts of any kind and description; and in carrying on its business, or for the purpose of attaining or furthering any of its objects or purposes, and to do any and all other acts and things, and to exercise any and all other powers which a natural person might or could do and exercise, and in any part of the world, as principal, agent, contractor, factor, trustee, or otherwise.

ARTICLE III.
The capital stock of this corporation shall be in the amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00), lawful money of the United States of America, divided into One million (1,000,000) shares of the par value of One Dollar ($1.00) each, which shall be paid for at such time and in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate, provided, however, that all or any portion of said capital stock may be issued in payment for real estate, personal property, services, or any other right or thing of value, necessary for or incidental to the advancement of this corporation; and when so issued, the same shall be and become fully paid and non-assessable, the same and with like effect as if paid for in cash; and the Board of Directors shall be the sole judge of the value of any property, real or personal, or right or thing acquired and exchanged for capital stock of this corporation; and no shares of the capital stock of this corporation shall be issued until fully paid for, in the manner upon the conditions and at the price specified by the Board of Directors, and thereafter the same shall be in all respects fully paid and non-assessable.

ARTICLE IV.
The time of commencement of this corporation shall be the day upon which a certified copy of these articles shall be filed in the office of the Territorial Auditor of the Territory of Arizona, as provided by law, and the corporation shall endure and continue for a full term and period of twenty-five (25) years thereafter, with the privilege of perpetual succession, as provided by statute, and the corporation may be renewed from time to time for further periods, each of twenty-five (25) years.

ARTICLE V.
The government of the corporation shall be vested in, and its affairs shall be conducted by a Board of Directors, consisting of not less than three, or more than seven Directors, each of whom shall be a stockholder, and who, other than the first five, as hereinafter provided for, shall be elected annually by the stockholders from their own number at annual meetings, which shall be held at the office of the corporation in Kingman, Mohave County, Arizona, on the first Monday of November of each year, at the hour of twelve o'clock noon.

The Directors shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified, and any vacancy in the Board may be filled by the remaining members thereof, by appointment, from the stockholders, and such appointment shall be for the unexpired term for which the appointment is made.

The Board of Directors shall have power to elect or appoint and define the duties of the officers, agents and employees of the corporation; to adopt by-laws of the corporation, and to amend, repeal and rescind the same; and, when authorized by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding stock of the corporation, to lease, mortgage, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of all of the assets of this corporation, or to lease, mortgage, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of any part less than the whole of the corporate assets of this corporation, without such authority.

The following stockholders shall constitute the Board of Directors of this corporation until the first annual meeting of the stockholders thereof, to be held on the first Monday of November, 1912, namely: L. L. Moore, H. H. Shuck, F. A. Shuck, J. B. Rice and M. L. Eitzenberger.

A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the Board, and the Directors may hold their first meeting at any time after the commencement of the existence of this corporation.

The officers of the corporation shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, and a Treasurer, and such other officers as may be provided for by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may from time to time, by resolution, appoint, such additional Vice Presidents, additional Assistant Secretaries and additional Assistant Treasurers of the corporation as may be deemed advisable, prescribe their duties and fix their compensation.

Any two of the officers of the company may be held by the same person otherwise qualified, except the offices of President and Vice President.

The first officers of the corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the first meeting, and shall hold office for such period as may be designated by said Board, and the Board shall have power to employ agents, brokers, clerks and workmen; to fix their compensation; prescribe their duties, and generally to control the affairs of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation may at any time subject itself, or be subjected, is the sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000.00).

ARTICLE VII.
The private property of the stockholders of this corporation, and each of them, shall be forever exempt from its corporate debts or obligations of any nature whatsoever.

In Witness Whereof, said incorporators have hereunto set their hands and executed these presents this 2nd day of December, 1911.

JAMES LARKIN, Plaintiff.
Vs.
HORSESHOE GOLD MINING AND MILLING COMPANY, a Corporation, and J. D. Jordan, Defendants.

Under and by virtue of an Execution and Order of Sale issued out of the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the Territory of Arizona, in and for the County of Mohave, on the 18th day of December, 1911, in accordance with a certain judgment and decree of foreclosure of Mechanics Lien rendered in said Court on the 17th day of October, 1911, and in an action wherein James Larkin was plaintiff and Horseshoe Gold Mining and Milling Company, a Corporation and J. D. Jordan, defendants, in and by which judgment it was adjudged and decreed that said Plaintiff do have and recover from Horseshoe Gold Mining and Milling Company, a Corporation and J. D. Jordan, the sum of Seven Hundred one (701.50¢) and 30 hundredths dollars, together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from December 4th, 1906, until paid, and for the further sum of Fourteen (14.58) and 15 hundredths dollars plaintiff's costs and disbursements in said action.

And it is further ordered and adjudged that plaintiff's mechanics lien upon the following described property of defendants Horseshoe Gold Mining and Milling Company, a Corporation, and J. D. Jordan, as the same existed on the 4th day of December, 1906, be foreclosed, and that said property be sold to satisfy said judgment, interest and costs; the said property being described as follows to wit:

The Owl, Montana, Esmeraldo, Essex, Lookout, Alta, Olympia, Owl No. 2 and Suffolk lode mining claims, situated in the Wallapai Mining District in the County of Mohave, Arizona, the location notices of which are recorded in the Records office of said Mohave County, in the Mining Records thereof, as follows:

Owl, recorded in Book I, at page 396;
